ATTENDANCE

Goodbye

We are very sad to say that Mrs Cheung will be leaving us next month, ready to take on a new challenge in a much larger Harrogate primary school. Mrs Cheung has been a valued member of our term and a great asset to school over her 5 years here and will be very sadly missed by both staff and children. We would like to wish her all the very best for the future and good luck in her new role.

Our lunchtime clubs are proving to be a roaring success and the children have thoroughly enjoyed them so far this week. If your child has not signed up but would be interested in doing so please email Mrs Mills who can check availability for you.

Individual School Photographs

Nikki Mitchell will be coming into school week commencing Monday 4th October to take the child's individual school photographs once again. We shall let parents know once we have confirmation of the days that Nikki will be with us —this is likely to very much be determined by the weather.

Goldilocks: # A Cautionary Tale

Instagram, Facebook, Snapchat, YouTube, Twitch... the sheer number of social websites in today's world can feel endless. So, perhaps it's not too surprising that 48% of children have been exposed to social media by age seven.

But before you despair, let's take stock of all the positive outcomes these platforms can have – rallying real change, bridging distances, building communities. The problem is not social media in and of itself. It's how it's used.

That's why we want to help parents like you have important conversations with your children early on about how to build a healthy relationship with social media.

#Goldilocks is a modern twist on the classic fairy tale that offers a fun and accessible way for you to discuss all things social media related with your younger children. Co-branded by Vodafone UK and Andersen Press, award-winning author Jeanne Willis created the light-hearted story alongside illustrator Tony Ross. The book is designed to help educate children about the potential consequences of being unkind, getting carried away with selfies, or oversharing images, as we see Goldilocks getting into trouble with the three bears over her pursuit of likes on social media....
